LANGUAGES

for educators

Fancy learning a new language or improving existing language skills, in your own time and free of charge? Then look no further, our teacher subject specialist training (TSST) course in MFL is for you!

We are offering subject training in French, German or Spanish to teachers working with young people in schools and colleges.

You will have:

- unlimited access to the world renowned Rosetta Stone online learning platform
- tailored online pedagogy sessions designed by current outstanding MFL teachers
- access to native speakers online with specialist coaching.

Enhance your CV with a DfE recognised accreditation and gain the ability to teach your chosen language at KS3!
