

'MAKING IT STICK'

TWO DAY TRAINING COURSE AT THE ACADEMY AT SHOTTON HALL

This course will explore examples and evidence of leading practice in making the best use of children's memory skills to accelerate progress, delivered by Nicola Hickman, Director of Teaching School and Secondary Teaching and Learning Specialist and Chris Peacock, NQT Lead and Primary SCITT Tutor.

Suitable for primary and secondary class teachers, NQTs, subject leaders, leaders of teaching and learning and teachers in key examination year groups.

DAY ONE

TUESDAY 29 JANUARY 2019

How the memory works

Gap task

Quizzing, spacing and interleaving, to work in line with making best use of children's memory skills to accelerate progress

DAY TWO

WEDNESDAY 6 MARCH 2019

Impactful modelling to pupils

Showcase of teaching practice centering on gap task

Reducing cognitive load to maximise retention

COURSE COST = £250
OR £200 FOR SCHOOLS IN THE SHOTTON HALL TSA.

To book your place, email
leanne.storr@shottonhallacademy.co.uk

